

Presented by Drs. Howard and Osler, 1877.

Localized fibrosis of the myocardium in atheroma and thrombosis of the coronaries.

Male, age 60 years. History of repeated anginal attacks extending over 10 years. Death from failing compensation.

Note: Complete occlusion of transverse branch of right coronary with dense sclerosis and area of heart muscle supplied.